

Publications

Increased IRS Outreach on Qualified Plan Issues

PUBLISHED

11/10/2010

SERVICES

In the past few years, the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) has added a number of new tools to increase qualified plan compliance through a combination of education outreach and increased enforcement/examinations. The attached article focuses on three new tools in the IRS arsenal—education phone forums, electronic survey technology and online resources such as the Employee Plans newsletter.