

Publications

Sun Capital and the Ever-expanding Scope of Multiemployer Pension Withdrawal Liability

ATTORNEYS & PROFESSIONALS

Michael Kreps

mkreps@groom.com

202-861-5415

David Levine

dlevine@groom.com

202-861-5436

Samuel Levin

slevin@groom.com

202-861-6648

Michael Prame

mprame@groom.com

202-861-6633

PUBLISHED

04/06/2016

SERVICES

Litigation

- Employer & Sponsor Litigation
- Retirement Services Litigation

On March 28, 2016, a Massachusetts District Court issued a decision in Sun Capital Partners III, LP et. al. v. New England Teamsters & Trucking Indus. Pension Fund, Case No. 10-cv-10921-DPW \(March 28, 2016\) finding two private equity firms liable for the multiemployer pension withdrawal liability of one of their portfolio companies, despite the fact that the funds were specifically structured so as to avoid potential exposure.

Please see the attached memo for further information.

Sun Capital and the Ever-expanding Scope of Multiemployer Pension Withdrawal LiabilityDownload